Below you will find a copy of the public hearing notice published in the Kanabec County Times.

State law requires that public hearings be held before action can be taken on conditional use permits, variances and subdivisions.

State law also states that in the case of variance regulations, written notice be given to all property owners within 500 feet of the affected property. Also written notice shall be given to the affected Board of Township Supervisors in care of the Township Clerk.

If you have any questions, please contact the Environmental Services Office at (320) 679-6456.
